

Following on from Volunteer's Week (1-7/6) ... our fabulous volunteers continue to do amazing befriending work and boost morale with our clients. A huge thank you to them and all the ★ incredible volunteers throughout the UK. ★

Next week is Loneliness Awareness Week (7-14/6)

The Marmalade Trust are dedicated to raising awareness of loneliness and helping people make new friendships.

Our DBS Service: Please note: we can no longer accept paper driving licences as a form of ID and only the card version can be accepted as a valid licence. If you have any queries on this or any other DBS issues or to register with us, please contact linda@cnca.org.uk.

Our Befriending Service: CNCA is the only Croydon charity providing high level, long term, intensive support to vulnerable older people. Our clients are often housebound (sometimes bedbound), victims of crime & very isolated with little or no support. Most have complex health needs; often dementia .
